RULES, DISCIPLINE AND SAFETY

12. All field safety rules and regulations will be reviewed annually, and will be considered binding for 12 months, except where urgent action is required. This action must then be ratified by the members at the next general meeting.
13. Any complaint of misconduct concerning any member can be made to any committee member either verbally or in writing (preferably in writing). The details must then be passed to the club secretary and the club chairperson be made aware.
14. The committee will investigate any complaint or instances of misconduct in a timely manner, including obtaining witness testimony and inviting the person(s) involved to explain their actions if deemed necessary. Once the investigation is complete, the committee will hold a disciplinary panel meeting (consisting of a minimum of 3 committee members), to review the evidence / allegations and decide how to proceed. The committee may call witnesses and ask the accused to appear to explain their actions.
15. Where an allegation of misconduct is made against a member, the member may be suspended from all club activities while an investigation is carried out.
16. Once the investigation is concluded and if the committee find the allegations to be substantiated, the committee have the following options available to resolve the matter:
 - A. Issue a verbal warning in which the member is made aware of his misconduct and what he is reasonably required to do to make amends.
 - B. Issue a written warning in which the member is made aware of his misconduct and what he is reasonably required to do to make amends.
 - C. Suspend the member from club activities including attendance at the club flying site, for a period not exceeding 30 days. This will be accompanied by a written warning in which the member is made aware of his misconduct and what he is reasonably required to do to make amends on return to the club.
 - D. Terminate the members club membership if the committee deem the misconduct is of such a serious nature that his continued club membership is deemed prejudicial to the values, safety and general wellbeing of the club & membership.
17. If the member fails to respond to A, B, or C in a satisfactory manner the termination of membership can be considered.
18. When the member is advised of withdrawal of his membership, he must be given the right of appeal. If he opts to appeal, this will be to the Club membership at an EGM which the Committee would call on his behalf at a previously agreed date and time. The motion to uphold the membership withdrawal or reverse it must be in accordance with the voting procedures set out in the Club Constitution (majority vote of the persons present).
